Games from the NPCC 2016 Winter Robin Tournament: Round: 1

Submitted by Joe with his comments and selected Fritz comments [shown thusly].

White: Shawn Curtis (1704) Black: Joe Mucerino (2073)

Date: 1/8/2016

[B21: Sicilian: 2 f4 and Morra Gambit] (*Indicates symbols inserted by Joe)
1.e4 d5 2.e5 ?!*(Joe - Capturing is better. The text leads into a good version of the French Defense for black, because he is able to get his light squared bishop ((called the "bad bishop" in the French)) outside of the pawn chain quickly and easily.) 2...c5 3.f4 Nc6 4.Nf3 Bg4
5.Bb5 Qb6 6.Bxc6+ Qxc6 7.h3 Bf5
8.Nh4 Bd7 9.0-0 Nh6 10.f5 [D]

10...0-0-0 ?!* (Joe - Rybka prefers 10...g5 or 10...g6. I thought about those at the board, and I forgot why I rejected them.) 11.d3 g6 12.f6 exf6 13.Rxf6 Be6 14.Bg5 Bg7 15.Qd2 [15.Rf2!?= should be considered] 15...Nf5 16.Qa5 (Text cont. next col.)

(Cont. from prev.col.) [16.Rxf5 Bxf5 17.Bxd8 Rxd8 18.Nxf5 gxf5]

16...Nxh4 (Joe - Not the best way to capture. Best is 16...Bxf6! After 17.Bxf6, it may look like black's Rooks are forked, but only now does black play 17...Nxh4. If white captures a Rook, then black will have two pieces for the Rook, or if white captures the knight, black will be up an exchange.) [Better is 16...Bxf6!? 17.Bxf6 Nxh4 18.Bxh4 g5] 17.Bxh4 a6 18.Nc3 Rde8 19.Na4 b5 20.Nb6+? [D]

[Causes further problems for White.]

Round: 2

Submitted by Joe with his comments and selected Fritz comments [shown thusly].

White: Joe Mucerino (2073) Black: Bob Kampia (1761)

Date: 1/15/2016

[A40: Unusual replies to 1 d4]
(*Indicates symbols inserted by Joe)

1.d4 e6 2.Nf3 Nc6 (Joe - Not a huge surprise. Bob has played some unorthodox openings against me recently.) 3.Bf4N d6 4.c4 g6 5.Nc3 Bg7 6.e3 a6 7.Rc1 Nf6 8.Bd3 0-0 9.h4?* (Joe - Here things

(Text cont. p.3)

9...h6 10.Ng1?* (Joe - Another bad move. I had ideas of 11.h5 Nxh5 12.Rxh5 and 13.Qxh5.) [10.0–0!?= must be considered] 10...e5 11.dxe5 dxe5 12.Bg3 Be6 13.Qe2 [13.Nf3 Ng4 14.0–0 f5] 13...Qd7 14.Rd1 Rad8 15.Bxg6 Qe7 16.Bd3?* (Joe - The correct way to guard the pawn on c4 is 17.Bc2 followed by Bb3.) [D]

16...Qc5 (Joe - Second best. After 16...e4! black would get a big advantage after something like 17. Nxe4 Nxe4 18.Bxe4 Qb4+ and black will capture the c pawn.) 17.b3? (Joe - This should lose the game. I was suspicious of it when I made it. Rybka likes 17.a3 instead. Black is able to pin the knight on the e1-a5 diagonal, and black's bishop on q7 will enter the game and win it.) [17.a3 e4 18.Bb1 Bxc4] 17...Qb4?* (Joe - Exactly the right idea, but the wrong way to do it. 17...Qa5 should win. What's the difference? As we will see, on the twenty-first move, white will play 21.a3 and hit black's queen. However, on a5, black's queen would be safe from such an attack. After the text black is still better, but white had drawing chances.) [17...Qa5 and Black can already relax 18.Rc1 e4 19.Bb1] 18.Rc1? [Strolling merrily down the path to disaster.] (Joe - Another move that (Text cont. next col.)

(Cont. from prev. col.) should lose! The immediate 18.Qc2 was the way to go.) [Better is 18.Qb2 e4 19.a3] 18...e4?!* (Joe - Black loses about half of his advantage after this. Winning is 18...Qa3! If white goes back with 19.Rd1, then 19...Qa5! wins as we saw previously. If 19.Rc2 then 19...Nb4 wins after 20.Rd2 Qc1+. Alternatively, if 19.Qc2, 19...Rxd3 wins the bishop, because white's queen must defend the Rook.) 19.Bb1 Rd7? [Black has a king attack. throwing away the advantage.] (Joe - The computer likes 19...Bq4 better.) [Better is 19...Qa3 might be the shorter path 20.Rd1 Qa5] 20.Qb2? [20.Kf1 Rfd8 21.Qe1µ (21.Nxe4? is inferior since it leads to 21...Nxe4 22.Bxe4 Rd2: 21.Bxe4? fails to 21...Nxe4 22.Nxe4 f5)] 20...Rfd8 ?* (Joe - I guess we both missed that the simple 20...Bxc4 wins a pawn.) 21.a3 Qb6 22.Na4 [Better is 22.c5!? Qxc5 23.b4] 22...Qa5+ [D]

23.Qc3?! [Doesn't do very much to defend the position.] (Joe - Apparently this is another losing move. 23.Nc3 is recommended. Now, after the text move, black should be winning again after 23...Bg4.) [23.Nc3 Rd2! Deflection: a3 24.b4 Rxb2 25.bxa5] 23...Qxc3+??* (Joe - All of the advantage that black had evaporated on that one move.) [Better is 23...Bq4 and Black takes home the point 24.Ne2 Bxe2 25.Qxa5 Nxa5] 24.Nxc3 [24.Rxc3? Rd1+ 25.Ke2 R8d2#] 24...Bf5 [Better is 24...Bf8 and Black is still in the game 25.Nxe4 Nh5] 25.Nge2 [D] (Next col.) (Joe - The worst is now over for white, and he has consolidated his extra pawn. Black crumbles now.) 25...Na5 26.Bc2 Bg4 27.Rd1 Bxe2? [Better is 27...Rxd1+ 28.Bxd1 Rd71 (Text cont. next col.)

Round: 2 (Makeup)

Submitted by Greg with his comments and selected Fritz comments [shown thuslv1.

White: Greg Sulat (1557) Black: George Murphy (1436) Date: 1/15/2016, Scheduled Date (Actual Date 2/8/16)

[CO6: French Tarrasch: 3...Nf6 4 e5 Nfd7 5 Bd3 main lines] (Greg - The opening was a fairly straightforward French Defense -Tarrasch Variation.) 1.e4 e6 2.d4 d5 3.Nd2 Nf6 4.e5 Nfd7 5.Bd3 c5 6.c3 Nc6 7.Ne2 cxd4 8.cxd4 Be7 9.0-0 f6 10.exf6 Nxf6 11.Nf3 0-0 [White has a very active position 12.a3 [D]

(Cont. from prev. col.) (Greg -Move 12 - just trying to limit the activity of the knight and dark squared Bishop. Eventually I want to push b5 and force him to the a-file; essentially cutting him off.) 12...Bd7 13.b4 Rc8 14.Bg5 [Black has a cramped position] 14...h6 [D]

(Greg - Move 14 - ...h6. REALLY thought about sacrificing the Bishop to really open up the King but didn't guite see a follow or how to truly bring other pieces in to the fray.) 15.Bh4 Nh5 [15...a6!?=]16.Bxe7 Qxe7 17.b5 Na5 18.Ne5 Rf6? [18...Qd6 19.Qb1 Be8 20.a3±] 19.Bg6 [D]

(Greg - Move 19 - Might have been better to bring the Knight to that square but thought I could pick up the Knight since there was nowhere for him to go. Didn't want to trade off that Bishop since its one of the best pieces in the French but didn't really have any other options.) [19.q4 Nc4 20.gxh5 Bxb5] 19...Be8 [19...Rxg6!? 20.Nxq6 Qe8±] 20.Bxe8 Qxe8 21.a4 [Better is 21.g4± White clearly has the better chances.] 21...Nc4 [The black knight is well posted.] 22.Ng4 Rf8 23.Rb1 [D] (Next. col.) (Greg - Move 23 - Rb1 - Trying to get a Rook lift in and limit the Knight's activity at the same time.) 23...Nf6 24.Nxf6+ Rxf6 [24...gxf6? 25.Nf4 Kh7 26.Qd3+ Kg8 (Text cont. next col.)

Position after 23.Rb1 (From prev. col.)

(Cont. from prev. col.) 27.Qq3+ Kh7 28.Qh3] 25.Nq3 Qq6 26.Rb3 Qg5 27.Nh5 Rf5 28.Nxg7? [D]

(Greg - Move 28 - Not sure if that was really smart or really dumb. I thought the best move would be for the Rook to maneuver so it can block for the Queen, which would get me 2 pawns out of all of this. The King taking the knight was just a blunder. After skewering and the Queen, taking the Rook George still isn't too far down in material. He has an active knight on a good outpost and the two Rooks are fairly equal to the Queen. I had to watch retaking the Queen since I needed the f pawn to guard against the Knight.) [Better is 28.Ng3 Rf4 29.Rf3=] 28...Kxq7? [Gives away a clear win.] [Better is 28...Qxg7 and the rest is a matter of technique 29.Rq3 Rq5] 29.Rq3 Qxq3 30.hxq3 [30.fxg3? Ne3 31.Rxf5 Nxd1] 30...Rcf8 [D] (p.5) (Greg - Then it's just a matter of continuing to push the Rooks back by advancing the pawns.) 31.Qd3 R8f6 32.q4 Rf4 33.f3 Rf8 34.g3 Rxd4 (Greg -When George took the d4 pawn I thought there must be a trap or fork I'm missing but it was a true blunder. I took the Rook with check and he resigned.) [34...R4f6] 35.Qxd4+ [D] (p.5) (Text cont. p.5)

Position after 30...Rcf8 (From p.4)

Position after 35.Qxd4+ (From p.4)

(Cont. from p.4) (Greg - Thought it was a tough game overall. His King looked exposed but had trouble taking advantage of that position.) 1-0

Round: 4

Submitted by Eric and Alex with their comments and selected Fritz comments [shown thusly].

White: Alex MacFarlane (1848) Black: Eric Funk (2076)

Date: 1/29/2016

[A27: English Opening: Three Knights Variation] (Eric wrote: "Olin, Alex outplayed me in the opening and middle game and deserved a better fate in this one. Two key mistakes in the endgame, moves 33 and 45, probably cost him the win and draw respectively.")

1.Nf3 Nc6 2.c4 e5 3.Nc3 f5 4.e3 Nf6 5.d4 e4 6.Nd2 Be7 7.Be2 0-0 8.0-0 [D]

13.Nxd5 Nxd5 14.Bd2 Bf6
15.Rc1 c6 16.Qb3 [D]

(Eric - Unnecessary. More accurate was the immediate 16... b6.)

16...Ne7 17.Bb4 b6 18.Rfd1 Bb7 (Eric - A serious mistake: the bishop is misplaced here. Instead, 18... a5

19.Bxe7 Qxe7 20.Qxb6 Qxe3+ 21.Kh1 Bd7 holds for black.) [18...a5 19.Bxe7 Bxe7 20.a4=] 19.Be6 [19.Ne5 a5 20.Bxe7 Qxe7 21.Qxb6 Rab8±]

19...g6 [Better is 19...a5!? might be a viable alternative 20.Ba3 a4=]

20.Ne5 Kg7 (Eric - Losing immediately was 20... Bxe5 21.dxe5 Qe8 22.Bxe7 Qxe7 23.Rd7 etc...) [20...a5 21.Ba3 a4 22.Qc2±] 21.Bxe7 [D]

[Alex- This pawn grab felt like a mistake at the time. I knew there was something better, but couldn't see it. 21. Nd7 is much stronger. Natural replies like 21... Re8 or 21... Rh8 run into 22. NXf6 KXf6 23. e4! With a decisive attack. Other 21st moves for black lose at least an exchange.) [Better is 21.Nd7!? a5 22.Bd6]
21...Qxe7 22.Nxc6 (Eric - Finally cashing in. Alex is reaping the rewards of his better decision making.)

(Text cont. next col.)

Necessary was either 33.Ke2 or 33.Nf4.) 33...Ke6 34.Nf4+ (Alex - 34. Nb4 would have prevented the disaster that is about to happen.) 34...Bxf4 35.exf4 [A Rook endgame occurred.] 35...Kd5 36.Ke3 b5 37.Kd3 b4 [D]

40.Rd2+ Kc6 41.a4 a5 42.b5+
Kc5 43.Kb3 Rb4+ 44.Ka3 f4
